

Environment Protection Policy

General objective of the company in environment protection is to achieve sufficient environment protection due to company main activity on satisfying needs of customers in high quality integrated circuits and semiconductor devices.

Main concepts of environment protection realization:

- Declaration of the fact, that ecological management is one of the high priority general priority for a company;
- Continuous improvement of ecological system management;
- Allocation of resources needed for environment protection realization and for ecological management system improvement

Management and employees of company are obliged:

- Follow the actual environment protection laws and regulations and carry out a requirements on environment protection, which are established by these documents;
- Do all the possible to avoid exceeding limits of environment contamination, which are established by authorized bodies;
- To monitor and evaluate influence of every new type of activity, new product and process on environment before introducing them;
- Make all necessary and cost effective measures to prevent or minimize a negative influence on environment;
- Introduce resource-saving technologies and technologies which have minimal influence on environment;
- Operate and maintain the equipment in safe conditions with a purpose to prevent any accidents with significant ecological consequences;
- Continuously train and improve skills of employees with a purpose of improving knowledge about environmental protection;
- To inform employees and other partners about company environmental protection activities.